

Erasmus Intensive Programme “EPSEN”

Slovak University of Agriculture in Nitra

June 9-22, 2013

Erasmus IP “Ecological production systems for environmental and human health” provides participants with theoretical knowledge and practical skills about different aspects of ecological agriculture and health issues offered by specialists from 9 partner universities from EU countries.

ECTS credits:	5
Language of instructions:	English
Teaching staff:	Professors from participating universities
Place of IP:	Slovak University of Agriculture, Nitra, Slovakia

Participating universities:

- University of South Bohemia, Czech Republic
- Warsaw University of Life Sciences, Poland
- Latvia University of Agriculture, Latvia
- University of Natural Resources and Life Sciences, Austria
- Estonian University of Life Sciences, Estonia
- University of Maribor, Slovenia
- Szent Istvan University, Hungary
- Slovak University of Agriculture, Slovakia
- National Superior Institute of Agronomic Sciences, Food and the Environment, France

Financial costs for students:

- Lectures and excursion free of charge
- Accommodation and lunch provided
- Pocket money
- 100% of the travel costs refunded

Other benefits:

- Getting to know Nitra
- International atmosphere
- Cultural program

www.ipepsen.uniag.sk